

"...The act of making is an act of becoming myself, interacting with art history, recovering from trauma, and expressing affection. ..." - Noelle Garcia

The Center for Native American and Indigenous Research is proud to present ...

ARTIST IN RESIDENCE NOELLE GARCIA

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH THE CENTER FOR NATIVE FUTURES

Based in the Chicago metropolitan area, Noelle Garcia is an artist who focuses on themes of identity, family history and recovered narratives in her work. She is a North American Indigenous artist from the Klamath, Modoc and Paiute tribes from Oregon and Nevada. Her multidisciplinary practice utilizes various research methods in order to inform her methodology.

SCHEDULE

In the Studio Mon, Wed, and Fri
9:30am-4:30pm
APRIL 10-14 and APRIL 17-21
KRESGE HALL #2-315

Welcome Breakfast Monday, April 10, 9:30-10:30am
CNAIR House, 515 Clark St

Open Studio Hour Friday, April 14 12-1pm
Wednesday, April 19, 3-4pm

Public Program Wednesday, April 26, 5-7pm
KRESGE #2-351

For more info:
cnair@northwestern.edu

www.cnair.northwestern.edu
Facebook: @NU_CNAIR
Instagram: @for_indigenous Twitter: @for_indigenous